10.60.020 Times and coins deposited prescribed. The parking time allowed following deposit of such coins as provided in this chapter, the hours during which such deposits are required, and the directions which shall appear on the parking meters, shall be as follows:

(a) Business Zones

- (1) Within the business zone, city parking meters shall be installed to show legal parking for a maximum of two (2) hours. The fee for parking is $1.50 or six (6) twenty-five (25) cent coins per hour. (3414-3/99, 3459-6/00, 3717-7/05)
- (2) Twenty-four-minute meters shall be placed within this zone in specific locations to be determined by the Director of Community Services. Coins shall be placed in such meters from 6:00 AM to 12:00 AM daily, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

(b) Residential Zones

- (1) Within the residential zone, 120-minute and twelve-hour meters shall be installed to show legal parking for a period of one (1) hour after deposit of six (6) twenty-five cent coins. (3414-3/99)

- (2) Sixty-minute, 120-minute, and twelve-hour meters shall be placed within this zone in specific locations to be determined by the Director of Community Services. Coins shall be placed in such meters from 6:00 AM through 12:00 AM daily, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall be charged for annual visitor permits to park in residential metered zones (maximum two [2] permits per household).

(c) Recreational Zones

- (1) Within Zones A, B, C, F, and G, twelve-hour meters shall be installed to show legal parking for a period of one (1) hour after deposit of six (6) twenty-five cent coins. (3414-3/99)
- (2) Zone D is a thirty-minute parking lot with no parking meters.
